This weeks reading in the 2015/16 reading plan included: Genesis 13-19; Matthew 12-18

Ice Breaker:

Do you have any special access to any special place or any service because of family or friends or other relationships?

1. Discuss anything that jumped out at you in your private devotions this week.
2. Do you feel a sense of privileged access to God? If not, why do you think you do not feel this? What does Scripture say about it?
3. What are you doing to pursue intimacy with God? What could you do?
4. In what area do you feel challenged in being steadfast in your faith?
5. How are you currently investing in others? Is there anyone who you are totally vulnerable with and who is vulnerable with you?
6. Is your default reaction with people to criticize or to build them up?

January 12 -
January 18

Date: January 11, 2015
Speaker: Pastor David Powell
Title: Access Through Atonement
Scripture: Hebrews 10:19-25

Sermon Outline:

Sermon in a sentence-

Christ's death on the cross provides access to a relationship with God with responsibilities to God and to others.

- I. We have privileged access to God through Jesus
- II. We have personal responsibility to know God intimately
- III. We have personal responsibility to be steadfast in our faith
- IV. We have personal responsibility to be invested in others
